

The City Hall

Photos courtesy of Joe Drazan

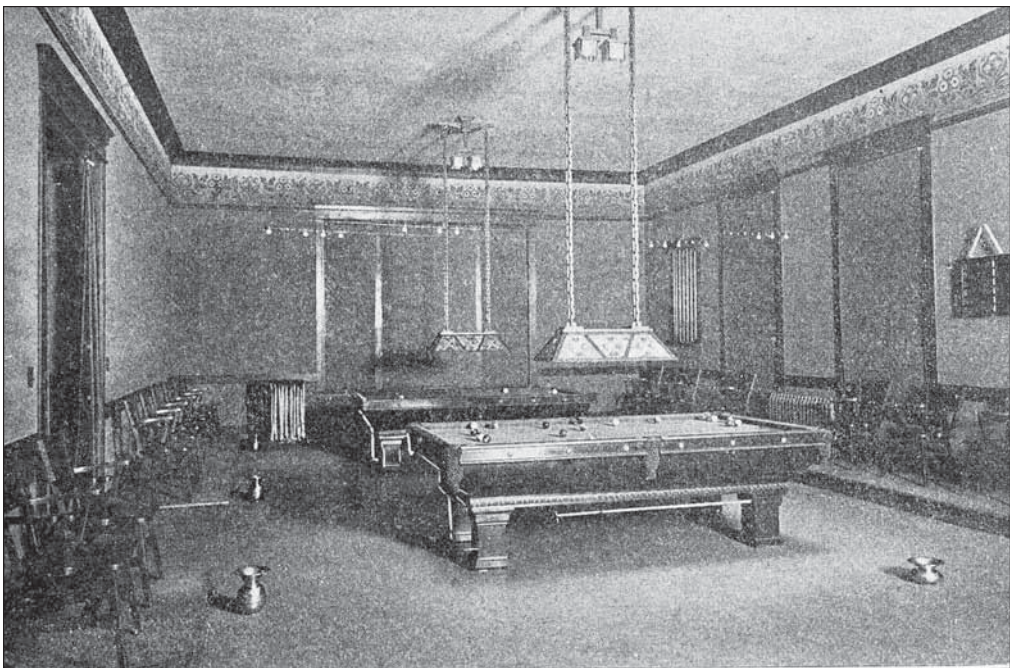

City Hall and Commercial Club, new in 1908

Pennant, "What Walla Walla wants is you," ca. 1910

The new City Hall building in 1908 also housed the Commercial Club which launched its promotional program — “What Walla Walla wants is you.”

● The Bygone Walla Walla Project by Joe Drazan is a local nonprofit, noncommercial effort to build and share a visual history of Walla Walla. To share your old snapshots, slides or negatives of Walla Walla area places and events, email Drazan at skippycat3@charter.net. Visit the Bygone Walla Walla blog at wallawalladrazanphotos.blogspot.com

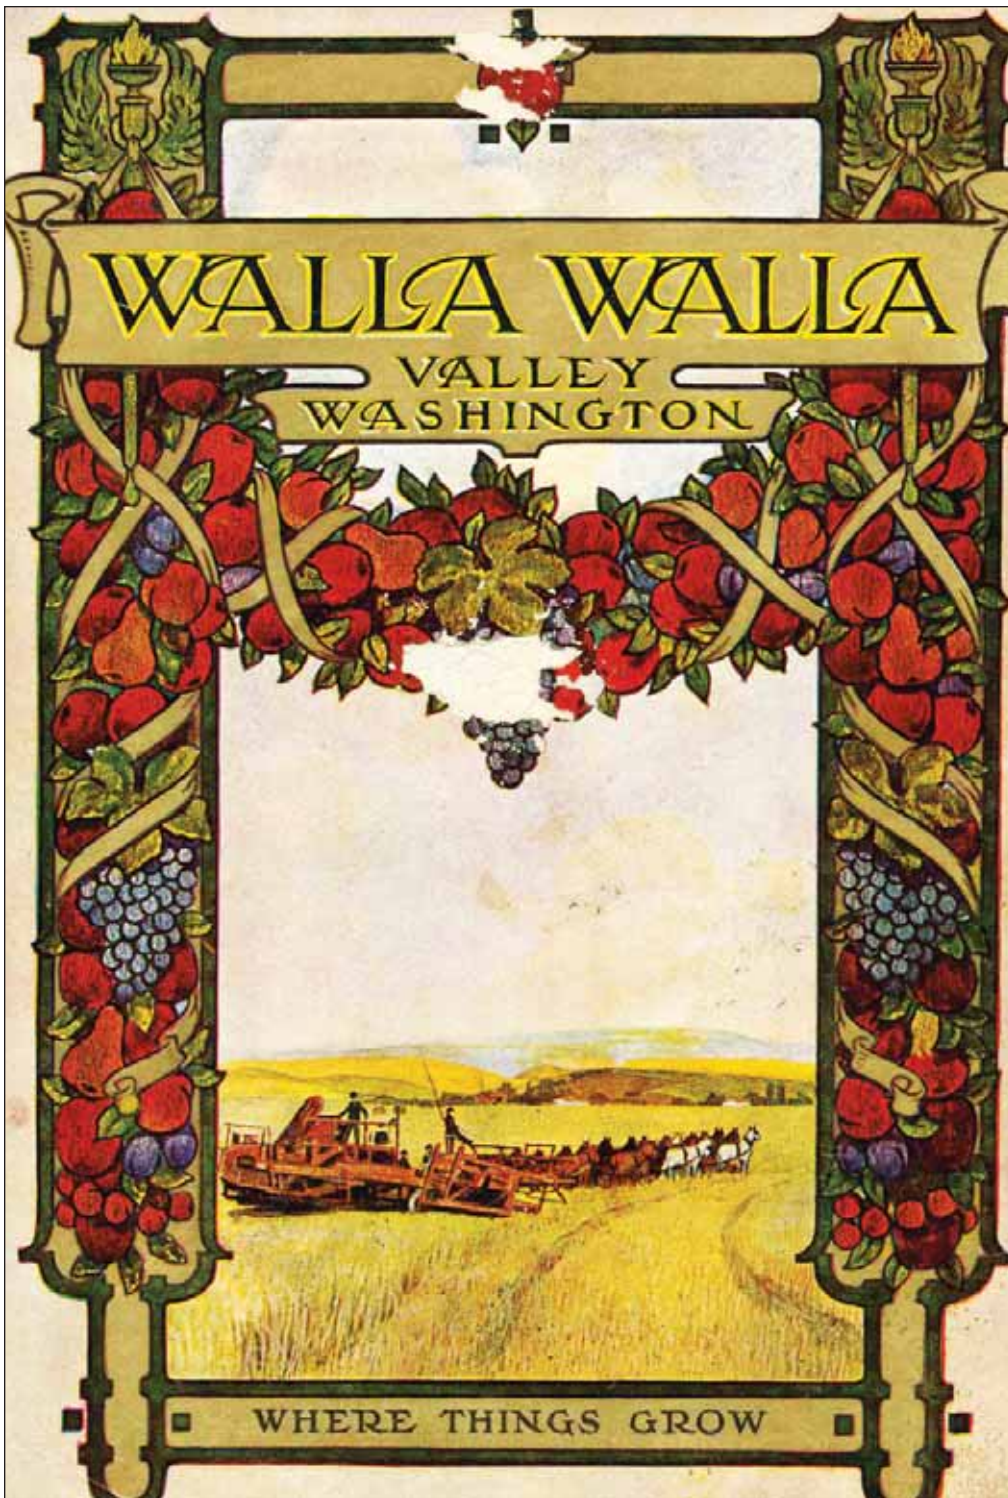

Billiard Parlors, Walla Walla Commercial Club

Commercial Club billiard room complete with spittoons, 1910

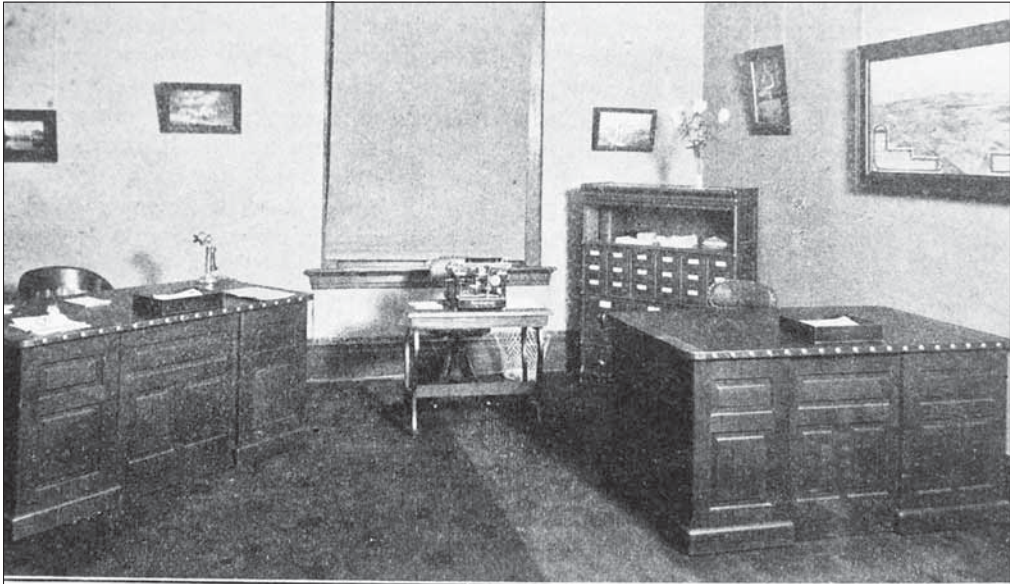

Secretary's Office, Walla Walla Commercial Club

Commercial Club office, 1910

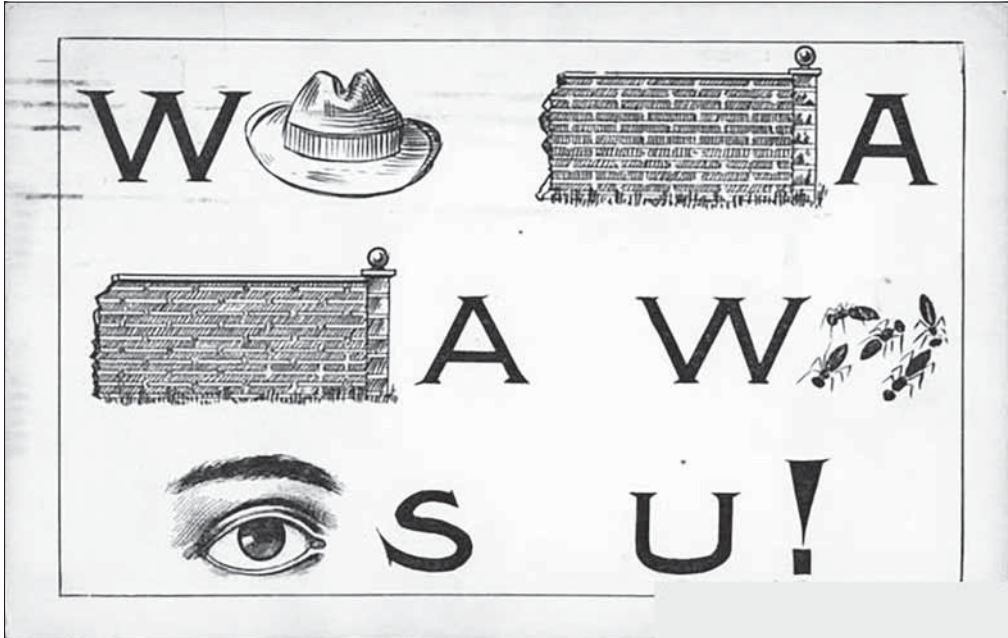

Walla Walla Valley, “where things grow,” 1910

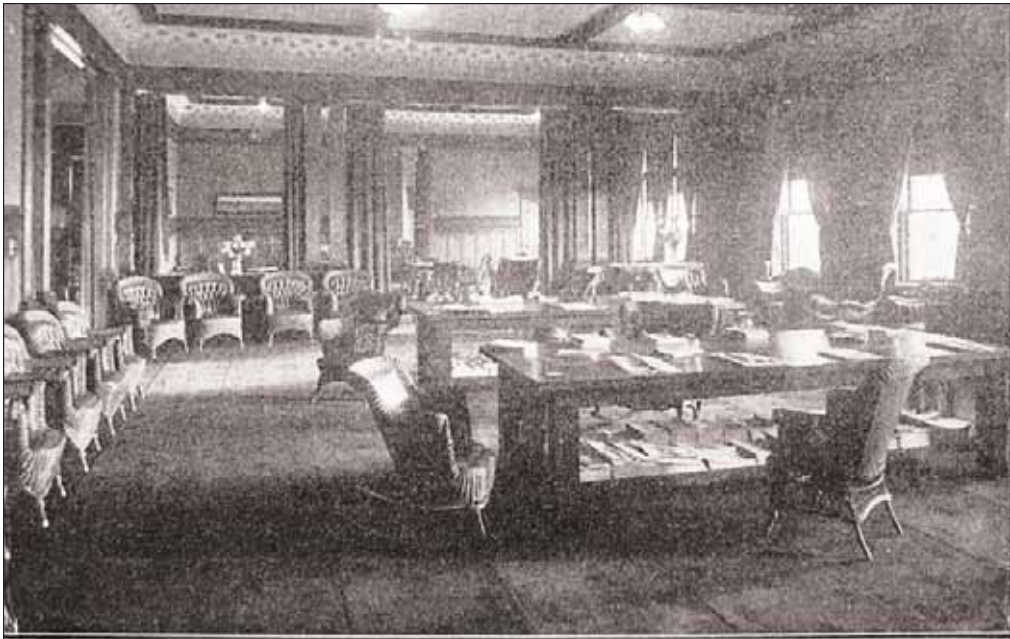

Publicity Manager's Office, Walla Walla Commercial Club

Commercial Club office, 1910

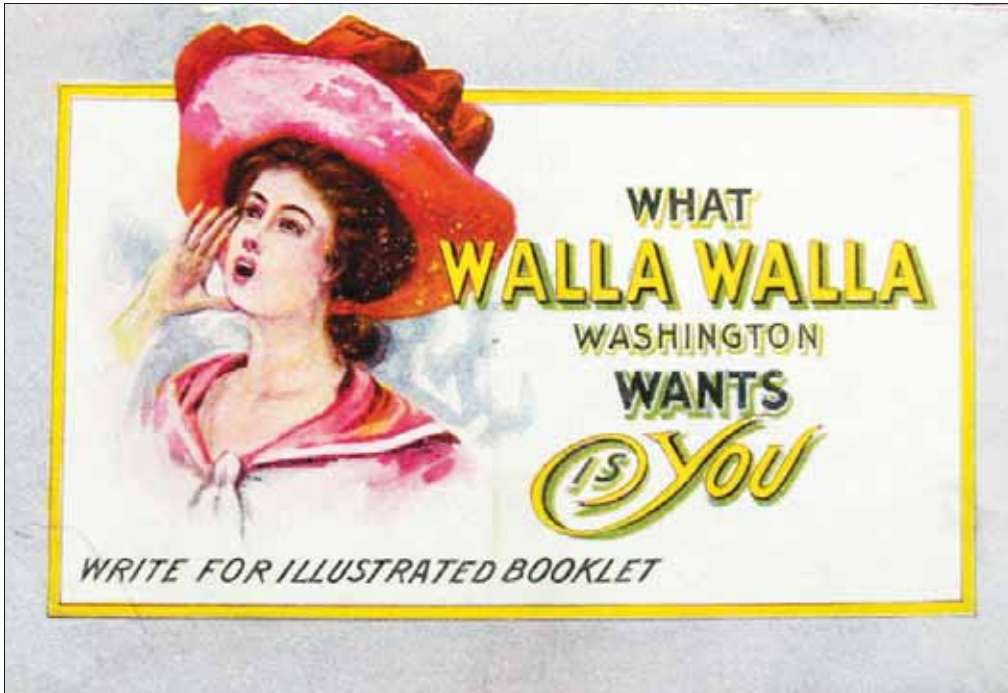

What Walla Walla wants is you, puzzle postcard, 1915

Assembly Hall and Parlors, Walla Walla Commercial Club

Commercial Club parlor, 1910

“What Walla Walla wants is you” postcard booklet